

County Agents
Report to the Quorum Court

Members of the Hempstead County Quorum Court will meet in their annual budget and tax-setting session Monday. They have received a comprehensive joint report from County Agricultural Agent Oliver L. Adams and Home Demonstration Agent Lorraine Blackwood on operation of the Extension Service program here the last 12 months.

Addressed to County Judge U. G. Garrett and the justices of the court the report says:

"There are 11 home demonstration clubs in the county with a total of 400 members. During the year they improved 364 homes and produced 43,264 pounds of frozen fruits and vegetables and 3,133 quarts of canned fruits, vegetables, and meat. The Victory Home Demonstration club won national recognition for aid to the Arkansas Crippled Children's Home.

The 4-H clubs for farm boys and girls have been equally active. Their annual two-day Forestry and Game camp in the country was attended by 59 boys and 7 leaders; and one of the boys, Don Ray Brown of Spring Hill, brought honors to this area with his registered dairy herd. He entered it in the Texarkana 4-States Show, the Third District Stock Show in Hope, and the State Livestock Show in Little Rock, coming out with 7 firsts, 4 seconds, 4 thirds, 2 fourths, 3 fifths, and a Reserve champion cow.

The report concludes with the following from County Agent Adams:

"Some security in health of our beef and dairy industry is a direct result of the organization and promotion of calfhood vaccination of heifer calves against deadly Bangs Disease. This year more than 2,106 dairy and beef heifers were given expected life protection on 482 farm visits. Since the all-important vaccination program was begun, 8616 head have been protected through 2,082 farm assistance calls. We organized for testing 1,525 head of cows over the county for tuberculosis and January so that the disease would not get established and to permit the full movement of cattle without testing for an expected six year period.

"The results through analysis of 487 field soil samples from Hempstead County farms with recommendations from the University of Arkansas Soil Testing Laboratory has supplied definite proof of soil fertility needs that may be understood and improved. The acreage in our farms is increased through the improved yields possible through this proper soils information. This phase of our program aids in securing a better balance between livestock numbers and the feed supply available on the individual farms. The cash crop costs are effected, too.

"The year ahead offers many challenges. The quality of our livestock and livestock products must be improved. The feeds crops program must be expanded. The yield of quality cotton per acre must be increased to prevent income loss to our very probable restricted cotton acres. The leadership development activities that contribute to better communities must continue to be expanded. Our program of action will continue to be planned and carried forward by volunteer local leaders.

"We would appreciate any suggestions."

UN Assembly
Pushing for
Vote on Plan

By HARRIS JACKSON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U.N. Assembly's Political Committee pushed for a vote today on Western proposals for disarmament talks by the world's atomic powers as the eighth Assembly session ended its second month. Delegates still hoped to finish their business by the Dec. 8 adjournment target.

New blasts from Russia's Andrei V. Vishinsky and Western replies prolonged the committee debate yesterday. More discussion was scheduled today in an effort to reach a ballot.

Approval of the Western resolution appeared certain.

Like previous Assembly resolutions on the subject, it urges the 12-nation Disarmament Commission — the 11 Security Council members and Canada — to keep looking for ways of reaching international agreement on disarmament.

The innovation in this year's resolution is a recommendation for subcommittee of the "powers principally involved" to seek a disarmament agreement in private negotiation.

U.S., Canada Atomic Defense Promised by Ike

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

OTTAWA (AP) — President Eisenhower declared today Canada and the United States "can and will" work out a defense against any surprise atomic attack while still maintaining their commitments in other parts of the world.

Addressing a joint session of the Canadian Parliament, Eisenhower said the Russians have adopted a truculent tone and United States-Canadian security plans "must now take into account Soviet ability to employ atomic attack on North America."

In his speech, prepared for delivery as the highlight of his good neighbor visit to Canada, the U.S. President declared:

"We shall achieve the defense of our continent without whitening our pledges to Western Europe or forgetting our friends in the Pacific. The bankruptcy of armament races and the suicide of nuclear war," he continued solemnly, "are the only alternatives to 'an international will to cast out the bomb and gun as arbiters.'"

Assuring "the threat of Communist purpose still exists," Eisenhower described Russia's recent rejection of the Western Powers' bid to a foreign ministers' conference on Germany and Austria as "truculent, not to say arrogant in tone."

"Our security plans must now take into account Soviet ability to employ atomic attack on North America, as well as on countries friendly to us, lying nearer to the U.S.S.R."

"Their atomic stockpile will, of course, increase in size, and means of delivery will improve as time goes on."

Eisenhower's historic address was telecast by the Canadian Broadcasting Co. — the first "live" television broadcast from the House of Commons chamber.

It also was scheduled on nationwide radio networks in the United States and Canada.

Before Eisenhower spoke, Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent of Canada said in introducing him:

"We would like you to know that we are grateful for the leadership your nation is providing in the common effort of free men and women to make our world a safer and better place for future generations."

St. Laurent said U. S. example, as a member of the United Nations in "vigorous and immediate resistance to wanton aggression has revived the hopes of anxious people that, through collective action, international peace may be secured and maintained."

FBI Seeking Man, Missing Diamonds

NEW ORLEANS, (UP) — A slender man with a "stony stare" was sought today as FBI agents pressed an investigation into the disappearance of $200,000 in diamonds during an airplane flight from Miami to New Orleans.

Agents of the FBI at New Orleans admitted they were investigating the case along with agents at Miami and Dallas, Tex., but said the only clue so far was an empty brief case found in the cash room of the International Airport at New Orleans.

Other police sources said the FBI was seeking a slender man believed to be around 40 years old, who boarded the plane in Tampa, Fla., and got out at New Orleans during the flight Wednesday.

They said the man was believed to be the one who sat in a seat behind Herman Gerstel of the firm, S. Leifer and Gerstel, of Miami. He told FBI agents that someone switched brief cases on him during the flight, taking the one that held the diamonds.

Gerstel learned of the switch, he said, when he reached Fort Worth, Tex., and opened his brief case. He said the case he opened contained rubbish, although it was "exactly like the one" he left Miami with and which held the diamonds.

Dreaded Pink Bollworms Found in Hempstead

Pink bollworms have been found in gin trash at Ozan by USDA trash crew of the Bureau of Entomology and also at the Valley Gin in Miller County.

We hope to eradicate the pest before it spread, County Agent Oliver L. Adams said today. The infestation found at Ozan has been narrowed to three farms says Gordon Barnes, extension entomologist.

Suggestions for control will be published in Monday's issue of the Star.

Europe Terms Probe Sorry 'Spectacle'

LONDON, (UP) — Some European newspapers applied terms like "insipidity," "sorry spectacle" and "McCarthyism" today to the handling of the Harry Dexter White case and the effort to force former President Truman to testify about it.

Many shared with the conservative Frankfurt (Germany) Allgemeine the view that this was another American "witch hunt." Said the Allgemeine: "This sorry spectacle is permeated by the spirit of Mr. McCarthy . . . and violates the principles of the free world in its own house."

Others suggested hopefully that President Eisenhower's criticism of efforts to subpoena Truman, and his defense of the former president's integrity, may mean "a turning point" in the Eisenhower administration.

The London Daily Sketch said editorially:

"The case has damaged American prestige. The next move lies with President Eisenhower. It will require downright words and actions—from him if the damage that has been done is to be repaired."

The mass circulation France-Soleil of Paris said Eisenhower's criticism of the House Un-American Activities Committee's subpoena of the former president indicates that "we are, doubtless, at a turning point of the Eisenhower administration. In taking Mr. Truman's part, the president has consolidated his own authority. Without wanting to make premature guesses, it is reasonable to think the Republican government will take the rein of control more firmly in hand from now on."

The Paris Financial Daily "Les Echos" was less hopeful. It said: "Mr. Truman's courage is known and, beside it, Mr. Eisenhower's hesitations in the White affair do not create a happy impression."

Jefferson Only President to Be Subpoenaed

By TED LEWIS, JR.

WASHINGTON, (UP) — Thomas Jefferson, regarded as the founder of the Democratic party, is the only American president who was subpoenaed while in office.

Some 150 years later former President Harry S. Truman became the only former chief executive to be subpoenaed by a congressional committee.

Jefferson's troubles were with the federal courts, notably Chief Justice John Marshall who was hostile to his administration. In fact, Jefferson's entire cabinet received court subpoenas at one point.

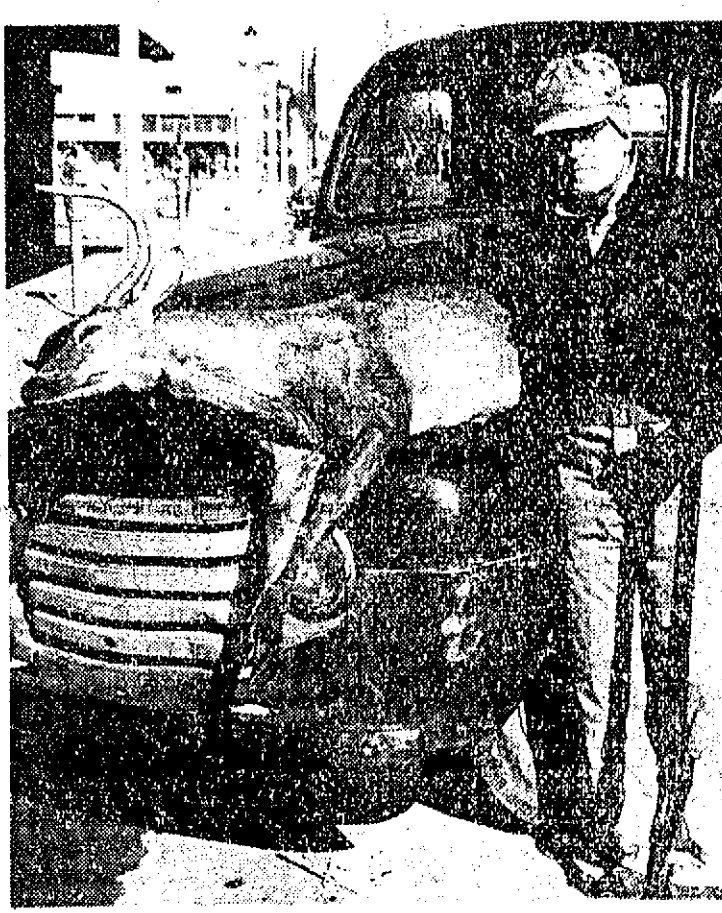

Jefferson turned down two subpoenas on the grounds a president has more important duties. He said he was "unwilling by any notice of the subpoena to set a precedent which might sanction a proceeding so preposterous."

The cabinet members were summoned to testify at a New York trial involving two American citizens who took part in a military expedition against a Spanish colony. The U.S. marshal at trial and the defense lawyers were anti-administration.

Purpose of the cabinet subpoena, wrote special Prosecutor Pierpont Edwards to a cabinet officer, was "to disgrace the president and you and the entire administration."

Sprague Quits Republican Committee

NEW YORK (UP) — J. Russell Sprague resigned today as a member of the Republican National Committee.

Sprague said he has been anxious to retire since 1950, but he indicated he quit because of criticism of his ownership of stock in trotting race tracks, which became involved in a mushrooming scandal with the murder of a union official.

A spokesman from Sprague refused to say whether the Republican leader had made his decision to resign after consultation with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

"You'd better ask Governor Dewey about that," he said.

"It would be foolish and unrealistic for me to ignore the fact that there has been criticism of me because of my ownership of race track stock," Sprague said in a letter to Rep. Dean P. Taylor, chairman of the New York State Republican Committee.

"This in spite of the fact that years ago when it appeared that there might be some conflict between my public responsibility and my private interest, I sold every share I owned."

FBI Asked to Tell All About White Spy Case

By ED GREAGH
And Warren Rogers Jr.

WASHINGTON, (AP) — The top Democrat on the House Un-American Activities Committee has demanded that J. Edgar Hoover, FBI chief, tell all he knows about the Harry Dexter White case.

"Everybody who had any contact with it ought to tell everything he or she knows," said Rep. Walter of Pennsylvania in calling for Hoover's appearance before the Senate internal security subcommittee.

Walter, in a recorded CBS radio interview last night, said that so far as he knows Atty. Gen. Brownell is the only person close to the case to call White a Communist spy. Brownell touched off the far-reaching uproar by a speech at Chicago Nov. 6, when he said former President Truman gave White a better government job in 1946 despite FBI reports that White was a Communist spy.

"He must have made that statement on the basis of information we've never had," Walter said.

"We and the American people are entitled to have that information," he added.

Walter said the House Un-American Activities Committee, of which he is the ranking Democrat, should bow out of the White inquiry. But he said there should be a full airing, presumably by the Senate internal security subcommittee, with Hoover, Brownell, Truman and others invited to appear.

Walter said he had been reliably informed that Truman, Hoover, then Secretary of the Treasury Vinson and then Atty. Gen. Clark decided in 1946 to promote White "and then keep him under surveillance."

But Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), chairman of the Senate internal security subcommittee, quickly issued statement challenging this. Jenner said Hoover is "too security conscious" to make any agreement permitting subversives to remain in government service.

The senator declared he would ask Brownell about this point at a closed session of his committee Tuesday. Brownell, who also has accepted an invitation to appear before the House group, is understood to be readying a "comprehensive statement" for the Jenner committee's executive session at 2 p.m. (EST) Tuesday.

The chairman said last night a public session a half-hour later will be radio-broadcast and televised.

Civil Rights Problem Again Discussed

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Sen. Cooper (R-Ky.) said today the Republicans should try to pass civil rights legislation when Congress meets again, but Sen. Ellender (D-La.) said that would start "a battle royal" in the Senate.

Cooper said in an interview he believes the Republican record in Congress will be decisive in the 1954 elections for 35 Senate seats and all 435 House seats. The Kentucky senator may be opposed for re-election by Alben W. Barkley, Democrat and former vice president.

Cooper said he doesn't believe such issues as the farm problem, budget balancing and tax revisions can be solved by any "quick and magic methods." But he said he doesn't think the Republicans ought to dodge any problems they promised to try to solve.

The civil rights plank of the 1952 GOP platform pledged "legislation to further just and equitable treatment in the area of discriminatory employment practices."

"I think we should make an honest effort to pass some civil rights bills," he said. "It is better to make a fight on civil rights and not just say that no bill can pass because of a filibuster and give up on the issue."

Ellender said in a separate interview he feels the Republicans will be getting off on the wrong foot if they try to bring a compulsory Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEC) bill before the Senate. In the past he has spoken for days against such measures.

"If they begin debate on the civil rights issue, the Senate may be in session for a long time and may accomplish little or nothing," Ellender said.

Attorney Appeals for Law Change

MEMPHIS (AP) — A Memphis attorney said today he had appealed to the Arkansas Supreme Court to erase a Crittenden County, Ark., rule which he claims limits the practice of law there by non-resident attorneys.

The lawyer, Abe L. Roberts, said non-residents are permitted to practice in Crittenden but that pleadings in all cases filed by a non-resident attorney must be signed by a resident attorney.

This means, he said, a resident attorney must be retained in all cases taken into Crittenden courts. The rule was put into effect in 1933 in Chancery Court and since has been extended to circuit and other courts, Roberts said.

The Memphis lawyer said Crittenden was the only county in the nation to have such a rule. Crittenden is just across the Mississippi River from Memphis.

Case Expects Reassuring Farm Program

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON, (AP) — Sen. Case (R-Id.) said today he expects the Eisenhower administration to recommend to Congress in January a farm program that will assure the public control of Congress after next year's elections.

Case said "there is no doubt" but that the farm issue would decide the elections.

Case conferred yesterday with Agriculture Department officials after spending the past month talking to farmers and livestock men in his normally Republican State.

He had no criticism for Secretary of Agriculture Benson, as a few Republican congressmen and many Democrats have had. He praised the recent departmental reorganization by Benson which among other things revamped the soil conservation service and eliminated its regional offices. This feature touched off considerable criticism.

"I think that's a good thing," Case said in an interview. "It will place more authority in the state offices of the conservation service and bring it that much closer to the farmers."

Case agreed with Benson's criticism that there is considerable dissatisfaction among farmers because of the drop in farm prices and incomes and lower prices for beef cattle.

But beef prices have been fairly good for the past month and there has been some increase while hog and corn prices have remained strong," he said.

Case said he has "some ideas" as to the program the administration will offer at the new session but could not discuss them now.

UN Group to Call for Arms Vote Soon

By TOM HOGE

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The U. N.'s 60-nation Political Committee went into a double session today in hopes of winding up arms debate and reaching a vote on a Western call for "private" Big Four talks on atomic control and disarmament.

The committee also faces debate plans by March 1 for substantial cuts in big-power armaments and a ban on the atomic and hydrogen bombs.

U. N. sources voiced optimism that Russia might support the Western proposal for a big power conference offered by Britain, France and the United States. The Soviets have backed similar proposals in the past.

The direct negotiation proposal apparently was initiated by France's Jules Moch, who suggested Wednesday that the Disarmament Commission set up a subcommittee of powers "mainly involved in the armaments race" to try to break the logjam on disarmament and atomic weapon control.

The 12-nation commission, currently sitting in New York, has been deadlocked for months by opposing East-West views.

Dwindling Hopes for Peace Get Some Brighter

By SAM SUMMERLIN

PANMUNJOM, (AP) — Allied and Communist diplomats today pumped new life into dwindling hopes for a Korean peace settlement with agreement on an agenda for preliminary talks to arrange a political conference.

Top-level negotiators reconvened after a week-long recess and approved an agenda drafted by staff advisers in six secret sessions.

The agreement provides for simultaneous discussion of a truce and peace for the peace conference and of nations which will attend. Communist insistence on deciding the composition first had deadlocked the preliminary talks for three weeks.

Approval of the agenda will get the stalled preliminary talks under way but U.S. envoy Arthur Dean told newsmen: "This is just the key that opens the door. The real hard work is just commencing."

Meanwhile non-Communist members of the Korean Repatriation Commission were increasingly pessimistic over the future of Red interviews with Chinese and Korean War prisoners who have refused to go home.

Explanations have been canceled nine straight days because of Communist demands to interview prisoners called up but not interviewed Nov. 5.

Armin Dancler, Swiss member of the commission, said Saturday the future of the explanation program doesn't "look very good."

The agenda for the preliminary political talks closely parallels a plan proposed first by envoy Dean Oct. 31. At that time Red negotiators called it "slight of hand" and "absolutely unacceptable."

Dean said after Saturday's meeting that he always has been optimistic about chances for a Korean peace conference "and I am even more optimistic now."

Dean and the Communist negotiators will meet again Monday to iron out working plans for subcommittee discussions.

Predicts GOPs Will Hike, Not Cut Taxes

WASHINGTON, (UP) — The Democratic Digest predicted today that the administration will come up with a new tax program that probably will hike — rather than cut — taxes for most American next year.

It based the forecast on an assumption that the administration will propose a five percent manufacturers' excise tax, more than offsetting the 10 percent personal income tax cut going into effect Jan. 1.

The administration has not said what its tax recommendations will be. At a news conference, President Eisenhower ruled out a general retail sales tax but did not commit himself one way or another on the manufacturers' tax.

The digest is published monthly by the Democratic National Committee. The tax prediction appeared in its December issue of day in a new section entitled "Message From the Editors."

"More than four-fifths of American taxpayers will probably end up with a tax increase instead of a tax decrease as a result of the upcoming Eisenhower tax program," the article said.

A manufacturers' tax—imposing levies on manufactured goods at the plant rather than the retail level—would impose burdens on the plant rather than the retail level—would impose burdens on 15,000,000 families which do not make enough to pay income taxes, the magazine said.

People in the $500,000 to $1,000,000 income brackets, it said, would be the real beneficiaries. Families earning between $4,800 and $10,000 a year might have to pay the government more in the way of excise taxes than income taxes under the proposal, the digest asserted.

Israel Heaps Flame on Pressure

By HARRIS JACKSON

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Israel was reported today to have full blame for recent Palestine violence on military and economic pressure by her Arab neighbors.

Sources close to Israeli Chief of State, Ben-Gurion, said he would review the whole field of Arab-Jewish relations before the U. N. Security Council today in his nation's most important statement of policy since an uneasy armistice ended the 1948 Palestine war.

The Israeli sources said Ben-Gurion would include Jewish charges of Arab aggression across the frontier, economic boycotts against Israel by Arab nations and Arab opposition to such Israeli development projects as diversion of the Jordan River waters. Syria has brought the latter subject before the Security Council in a separate complaint.

The meeting of the United Nations organization was called today to debate further the charges — backed up by the report of U. N. military observers in Palestine that armed Arab forces on Oct. 14 broke the Palestine armistice with a "coordinated" attack on the Jordan border village of Kibya, fifty-three Arabs were killed.

The Western Big Three on Monday condemned Israel for the attack but so far have not presented the council with a resolution of censure.

Israel already has contended that the Kibya attack was made not by her regular army but by village militia influenced by a Jordan Arab force.

The Israeli government made it clear it regarded the Kibya incident as an isolated outbreak but as one of a long series of border violations resulting from Arab pressure.

DOROTHY DIX

Chief Obstacle to Marital Bliss

Money, money, money! Love of it is the root of all evil. Arguments concerning it are the cause of a vast percentage of divorces. Arguments about it are the cause of a vast percentage of divorces. Arguments about it are the cause of a vast percentage of divorces.

Disputes Galore
Consider, then, the number of divorces a money problem can cause, and the number of divorces a money problem can cause.

What can be done to decrease the financial cause of matrimony? Money is a very important factor in getting married. Money is a very important factor in getting married.

Young women seem to have an inherent dislike to talk about anything as mundane as money. Such practicality interferes too much with romance.

Budgeting Knowledge Handy
A little practical budgeting knowledge comes in handy also, especially from a professional source. For this, I heartily recommend some of the Government's excellent publications.

Guiding Family Spending, (15c), and Family Budget of City Workers, (5c) are particularly recommended. They may be obtained by writing to the Superintendent of Documents, United States Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. Do not send postage stamps for remittance.

A practical approach to a problem may put a dent in that 60 per cent ratio.

Says Truman Clean But in a Dirty Crowd

(Editor's Note: In the following dispatch, a former White House aide, tells part of ex-President Truman's side of the Harry Dexter White controversy. The aide, who was very close to Mr. Truman at the time of the White incident, talked to U. P. White House reporter Merriman Smith, an old acquaintance, on the condition his name would not be used.)

By MERRIMAN SMITH

WASHINGTON (UP) — A former White House aide of Harry S. Truman accused the headline tempest over the Harry Dexter White case today and came up with this evaluation of the ex-President:

"He was a clean guy who grew up in a dirty crowd."

The ex-assistant is now in private business and does not want to be drawn into the controversy over GOP charges that Mr. Truman promoted White in the face of FBI warnings that he was a spy. Consequently, the aid can not be identified by name.

But he was in an excellent position to watch the ex-President, sometimes laterally over his shoulder, during the days which now figure in the GOP investigations.

The United Press asked him to describe the atmosphere at the White House in late 1945 when Mr. Truman, according to Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., first received a danger signal from the FBI about White.

"You must remember," he said, "that these things happened in the pre-Whittaker Chambers period and just when Elizabeth Bentley was beginning to talk. As a matter of fact, rumors about White had been floating pretty freely around the government since 1942 or 1943 but there was no proof of anything."

"It is entirely conceivable to me," he went on, "that Mr. Truman could have paid little attention to the first report on White. The second report was a different matter — I understand the FBI hasn't released that one."

"At any rate, this was a complicated and bewildering period for Mr. Truman. He was a clean guy who grew in a dirty crowd. He had sort of a code duello — he didn't want to crack down on a guy just because somebody said something bad about him."

"As I understand it, the first FBI report on White was based almost entirely on Bentley information. The President never told me, but I got the idea he felt that there was a woman that nobody ever heard of and to put it mildly, was just a bit eccentric."

Ike Throws Brakes on Truman Attack

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Republicans started after former President Truman in high gear. Then President Eisenhower threw on the brakes and they skidded.

Given a sharp nudge by Eisenhower, Gen. Brownell — who has far more experience in politics than the President — came up with a statement saying what he had left unsaid:

That he didn't mean to suggest Truman was disloyal when he said the ex-President promoted Harry Dexter White after the FBI sent the White House notice that White was a spy for Russia.

And Eisenhower pulled the brakes on Rep. Harold Velde (R-Ill.), chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, who had piled up headlines with his subpoena of Truman, Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark and South Carolina Gov. James F. Byrnes.

After Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday he would not have tried to subpoena Truman, Velde and his fellow Republicans on the committee went into a huddle to check signals.

In charging last Friday that Truman promoted White in spite of FBI warnings, Brownell seemed clearly to be saying Truman was lax. But was he suggesting Truman was deliberately lax?

He didn't say, and because he didn't the country wondered whether Brownell was questioning Truman's loyalty.

Yesterday at his news conference, Eisenhower said it was inconceivable to him that Truman could be disloyal to America. A few hours later, Brownell issued the statement saying he didn't mean to question Truman's loyalty.

It wasn't the first time Brownell stepped in to modify something he had said before about the White case.

In his opening charge, he said FBI reports had been delivered to Truman. Three days later he toned this down to a statement that the reports had been delivered to the White House for Truman.

Gov. Byrnes, now a political foe of Truman but at the time of the FBI reports his secretary of state, said this week Truman told him he had seen the reports.

Velde and Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.), chairman of the Senate subcommittee on internal security, have been in apparent competition over who would investigate Brownell's charges for Congress.

Jenner announced days ago he would question Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan today. Right behind him came Velde with the news he'd call Vaughan Truman military aide to whom Brownell said the FBI reports were delivered — two days before the Jenner committee got him. Later Velde said he would hear Vaughan at the same time as the Jenner group.

Jenner said he would not consider issuing a subpoena for Truman, whereupon Velde announced a subpoena had been issued for Truman, Clark and Byrnes. Neither Clark nor Truman has said whether they will honor the subpoenas. But Byrnes declined, saying the committee could come to him. Velde agreed to this.

Democrats on the committee, giving signs of blazing anger, complained that they had not been consulted at all about the subpoenas.

Velde could have asked Truman to appear, instead of ordering him. The subpoena was something he could have used later. At least one Republican on the committee, also not consulted, expressed dislike of Velde's procedure.

When Eisenhower did, too, there was such an uproar in Velde's committee that it appeared unlikely Truman would have to appear soon, if ever.

Closing Hospital Would Hurt Spa

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Cherry said today that closing the Army-Navy Hospital at Hot Springs would have serious effect on the prestige of the city's curative waters.

The governor said that if the proposed closing is effected March 1 it would amount to the federal government saying that the Hot Springs' water had no curative value.

Cherry told his news conference that Hot Springs also might lose 400 families who are connected with the hospital.

Rice Estimate Is Revised

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Agriculture Department believes Arkansas will produce 11,270,000 100-pound bags of rice in 1953.

The estimate shows a 1,102,000 bag increase over the department crop report issued last month, and accounts for most of the increase in the national estimate of 52,828,000 bags. The previous forecast for the nation was 51,726,000 bags.

Miles McPeck, agricultural statistician attributed the increase to warm weather which he said allowed late rice to mature.

The only other change in Arkansas crops reflected by the report was in soybean production. The department, which previously estimated the state would produce 12 bushels an acre, now forecasts 11 bushels an acre crop for a total of 2,093,000 bushels.

Tut Tut, He May Get a Summons

"I know this is against the law," he commented as he crossed the street in the middle of the block to join a sidewalk crowd watching Dave Garrovy's NBC-TV show.

As Truman watched the show through the windows, the chimpanzee, J. Fred Muggs, was brought to the window and the former President smiled.

"I'd better get along. I don't want to spoil the show," Truman said and started away.

The chimpanzee was brought outdoors and Truman paused to grasp its paw. As the walkers moved away a reporter asked the former President whether he thought "the Republicans are making monkeys out of the people of the United States."

"I'll let you draw your own conclusion," Truman said with a smile. "I hope you are a Democrat."

State Won't Pay Off for Bishop Slaying

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Claims Commission announced yesterday that it has rejected an Illinois woman's demand for $10,000 damages for the killing of her son by convict Tuck Bishop.

The unusual claim was filed by Mrs. Ada Daugherty of Elgin, Ill. She contended that Arkansas officials were negligent in permitting Bishop's release on furlough from

Big League Baseball Chatter

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — The annual baseball meetings are more than two weeks off but already the hot stove league is simmering with swap talk.

Washington Manager Ruckey Harris is concerned with his outlook and is eyeing Centerfielder Johnny Girth of Baltimore. Art Johnson, general manager of the Orioles, is reported dickering with Hank Greenberg of the Cleveland Indians. Thibault is seeking pitching help and Greenberg wants Catcher or Chief Courtney and Outfielder Vic Wertz.

The Chicago White Sox have a Doherty problem and are hopeful of making a deal with the New York Yankees for some of their infield surplus. If that fails, Manager Paul Richards may switch Outfielder Minnie Miñoso to third base and move First Baseman Ferdy Pate to left field.

The Boston Red Sox are looking for a long ball hitter to follow Ted Williams in the batting order.

Wid Matthews, general manager of the Chicago Cubs, denies he is preparing to trade Shortstop Ray Smalley to the Philadelphia Phillies for Third Baseman Willie Jones.

"We have four third basemen now," he says. "What we need is a good defensive outfielder to go with Ralph Kiner and Hank Sauer."

Alie Reynolds, New York Yankees' right-handed pitching ace, still is undecided whether to retire or continue pitching in 1954.

"I've been taking treatments for a back injury," he told friends recently, "and even though there has been improvement, it's entirely to early for me to make up my mind about 1954."

Philadelphia's wild kids of 1953 are for a face-lifting next year. Two youngsters — First Baseman Ben Thompson — are expected to win regular berths on the varsity next season. Moskous, a husky youngster, batted in 117 runs at Salt Lake City this season. Thompson, former university of Texas star, batted 316, hit 13 homers and drove in 70 runs at Terre Haute.

Employment Drops 64,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — Total employment in U.S. manufacturing industries declined by 64,000 workers in September, the bureau of labor statistics said today.

The decrease left 17,189,000 Americans still employed in factories.

Layoffs came at the rate of 15 for every 1,000 employees during September, compared with 13 per 1,000 the previous month.

Hourly rates declined from 43 per 1,000 employees in August to 40 in September.

Workers quitting their jobs increased from 29 to 31 for each 1,000 employed.

Bobcats Come From Behind to Win 20-7

Coming from behind in the final period, the Hope Bobcats overcame Arkadelphia last night 20 to 7.

The Bobcats scored their only touchdown in the last minute of the first period. Jim Baker passed 62 yards to end Bill Barrow for the score. Don Meador converted.

Hope scored in the second quarter when they recovered a fumble on Arkadelphia's 10 yard line. From there, the crowd-charged Bobcats passed to end Buddy Mosley for the score. Grimes try for extra point was a little wide and Arkadelphia led 7 to 6 at halftime.

The third period saw neither team do much on offense. Arkadelphia threatened to score once, driving to Hope's 10 yard line only to be held back by the Bobcats charging line led by Hip, Caston, Mosley, Hendon, Cornelius, and Rock.

Hope really got the ball rolling in the fourth period and scored two touchdowns. After driving 43 yards, Bruce Duke plunked over from the 3 yard line. Sonny Griffin passed to James Caston for the 14-7.

The final touchdown came when Raymond Churchwell skirted left end for 32 yards and paydirt, behind excellent blocking. Grimes converted and Hope was out front 20 to 7.

"Wisconsin is one of the finest teams in the country," he said. "It has two wonderful fullbacks (Alan Ameche and Chuck Thomas) four fine halfbacks (Jerry Witt, Harold Carl, Bob Ginnings and Clay Brant), a terrific quarterback (Jim Miller), and a beautifully moving line."

If Williamson can gear the Badgers to stop Caroline and Bates he will be the first Big Ten coach to do it this year. They have completed for 1,579 rushing yards. Bates has scored 11 touchdowns. Two short of a school record first set by Red Grange in 1923.

Carroll has accounted for 1,354 yards in all phases—rushing, kicking and punt returns, pass interceptions and receptions. This overshadowed Grange's unofficial record of 1,200 set 30 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Tink Tye entertained Mrs. Doris McFadden at their home Thursday night, November 12. The table was covered with a lace table cloth centered with yellow chrysanthemums. The hostess served a dessert plate and coffee.

Williamson Plots Against Illinois Backs

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

CHICAGO (AP) — By Williamson, Wisconsin football coach, has the best record in the Big Ten.

"It's not impossible to stop Caroline and Bates of Illinois," he said today. "It's just difficult."

Williamson would not elaborate on how the two Illinois spongers, headbatters, J. C. Caroline and Mickey Bates, can be stopped. He's keeping this strictly to himself.

If Wisconsin can collar the pair Saturday at Madison, Wis., the Badgers should defeat Illinois and scramble the Big Ten title chase and Red-Blue outlook.

The game promises to be unbeaten Illinois' most risky assignment of the season. Wisconsin, ineligible to return to the Rose Bowl, has been defeated only once in a drive for the conference crown.

Coach Ray Elliot of Illinois said Rose Bowl talk is banned for his team and then proceeded to his poetic over Wisconsin.

pected to win regular berths on the varsity next season. Moskous, a husky youngster, batted in 117 runs at Salt Lake City this season. Thompson, former university of Texas star, batted 316, hit 13 homers and drove in 70 runs at Terre Haute.

Bobcats Come From Behind to Win 20-7

Coming from behind in the final period, the Hope Bobcats overcame Arkadelphia last night 20 to 7.

The Bobcats scored their only touchdown in the last minute of the first period. Jim Baker passed 62 yards to end Bill Barrow for the score. Don Meador converted.

Hope scored in the second quarter when they recovered a fumble on Arkadelphia's 10 yard line. From there, the crowd-charged Bobcats passed to end Buddy Mosley for the score. Grimes try for extra point was a little wide and Arkadelphia led 7 to 6 at halftime.

The third period saw neither team do much on offense. Arkadelphia threatened to score once, driving to Hope's 10 yard line only to be held back by the Bobcats charging line led by Hip, Caston, Mosley, Hendon, Cornelius, and Rock.

Hope really got the ball rolling in the fourth period and scored two touchdowns. After driving 43 yards, Bruce Duke plunked over from the 3 yard line. Sonny Griffin passed to James Caston for the 14-7.

The final touchdown came when Raymond Churchwell skirted left end for 32 yards and paydirt, behind excellent blocking. Grimes converted and Hope was out front 20 to 7.

"Wisconsin is one of the finest teams in the country," he said. "It has two wonderful fullbacks (Alan Ameche and Chuck Thomas) four fine halfbacks (Jerry Witt, Harold Carl, Bob Ginnings and Clay Brant), a terrific quarterback (Jim Miller), and a beautifully moving line."

If Williamson can gear the Badgers to stop Caroline and Bates he will be the first Big Ten coach to do it this year. They have completed for 1,579 rushing yards. Bates has scored 11 touchdowns. Two short of a school record first set by Red Grange in 1923.

Carroll has accounted for 1,354 yards in all phases—rushing, kicking and punt returns, pass interceptions and receptions. This overshadowed Grange's unofficial record of 1,200 set 30 years ago.
